

WESTCHESTER COUNTY
LOCAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of the Westchester County Local Development Agency is to strategically provide resources and encourage economic investment and job growth via capital investments among non-profits and public benefit corporations located within Westchester County. These efforts should result in improved economic well being for the county's citizens. This mission will be advanced by judiciously using its authority to issue tax exempt bonds for capital infrastructure projects in the county, and offer qualified project applicants' exemptions of mortgage recording taxes, and adopting Payment In Lieu of Taxes which have been approved by the local affected municipalities.
